

The WHPS Weekly

Friday 8th March

Dear Parents and Carers,

This week has been such an exciting week at West Hampstead Primary School celebrating World Book Day!

Last Friday, we started with an assembly to get the children ready. On Tuesday, the children read their new book and got ready to bake some tasty treats for the judges to try! Miss Born-to-Bake-Bones and Miss Make-Some-Effort absolutely loved the tasty treats. Chef Drake was very full by the end of it all. The winning bakes each won a new book to enjoy at home as well as a handshake from a bake-off judge!

On Thursday, we had some amazing costumes from the adults and children. Everyone made such a effort; it was so great to see. The children had different adults coming to read to them throughout the day and they also buddied up with different classes to share stories. There was a love of reading singing through the school and it was lovely to see.

Next week there are some exciting trips taking place across the school. Please make sure the children have the appropriate clothing for their trip and a packed lunch (if it's needed)!

Have a lovely weekend,

Miss Bones

Deputy Headteacher

We had a huge amount of fun celebrating World Book Day this week! At West Hampstead we really enjoy books, and this was a brilliant way to celebrate our love of reading. Children took part in lots book themed activities, and our Big Book Bake Off was a fantastic opportunity to connect their love of books with a love of baking. There was a buzz of excitement across the school as children celebrated their creations.

It was lovely to see such imagination as the children came to school dressed as their favourite book characters. Thank you for all the effort made. We celebrated together as a whole school and really enjoyed seeing everyone's outfits! Children were sent home with a £1 book token which can be spent in any book store. They left with lots of book recommendations! Enjoy reading some comments from the children who have shared their favourite part from their baking this week.

"I put hair and a mouth. I was happy!" Rey

"Apple, banana, kiwi. I felt good my Mummy say I love you" Andion, Lilly Class

"I liked the sprinkles and the chicks. It tasted like chocolate and very yummy" Leila, Lilly Class

"I am happy! The Little Red Hen made bread." Mikhail, Avon Class

"I enjoyed making my own cupcake, and making it in real life! It was delicious!" Amelia, Shannon Class

“I was overjoyed when my giant jam sandwich was chosen. I loved the Big Book Bake Off with my friends” Lucas, Mersey Class

“I love to bake and I enjoyed creating my sandwich”

“If you’re in a food contest, it is not about winning, it is about the taste. Mine was yum!” Scarlet Mississippi Class

“It was fun and exciting” Josh, Amazon Class

“I like how this gave me an opportunity to be organised. My design used red sprinkles to make a background and it took a long time to make a background. I also loved how creative it let me be. Using the fruit and cutting it to make flowers was really clever I think!” Redon, Nile Class
