

The WHPS Weekly

Thursday 28th March

Dear Parents and Carers,

This week's WHPS Weekly is all about an exciting trip that happened on Monday. A selection of children from across the school went to RIBA (Royal Institute of British Architects). The trip was hugely successful and you can see what the children got up to in the rest of the newsletter.

Also included in this week's newsletter is information on art competitions we are currently entering, including some award winners! It's so fantastic to see so many budding artists entering competitions.

Today is the last day of Spring Term and what a fantastic term it's been! The children have enjoyed lots of different trips: Y6 visited the Berkley Hotel for afternoon tea and Y2 visited Hampstead Heath to just name a couple! We had owls visiting our Reception children. Y3 performed on stage as part of their work with The Place (we're still waiting for pictures to come through from this but we can't wait to share them)! We've had children visiting the British Library in Y2 and we've also had workshops with the CRICK across the school. And, of course, we can't forget World Book Day – the costumes this year were excellent and the book inspired bake off was so fun! It's been a great term filled with fun, enriching experiences and lots and lots of learning. We can't wait to do it all again (and more) in 2 weeks' time.

For now, we hope you have a restful break and enjoy some time together!

Don't forget school is closed for INSET Day on Monday 15th April.

We will see you on Tuesday 16th April.

Trip to RIBA (Royal Institute of British Architects)

On Monday 25th March, the Junior Art Club & Eco Club visited the Royal Institute of British Architects at 66 Portland Place. This trip brought to life the projects that both clubs have been working on this term with Sabrina, our art club tutor, and gave the children an insight into designing and building for the world and climate we live in, as well as how Architects build to “Make the Future a Better Place” – RIBA.

This Term the Junior Art Club children have taken a particular interest in building structures through the weekly ‘Creation Station Table’ that runs alongside a more focused art activity. The children have been using an abundance of useful items recently collected from the Children’s Scrap project. Imagination has been free flow; a box of wooden sticks being such a hit! They were used to create houses, football goals, rafts and lots of other ideas in-between. Ending the term with a collaborative effort to make a theatre, characters and some script writing for fun.

At RIBA, ‘Sustainable Building’ has a real spotlight and Eco Club’s whole ethos is based on Eco-friendly living so combining the trip for both clubs, on this occasion, was a real success. The RIBA workshop leader was very impressed with how knowledgeable our children were and called them budding experts as they were able to confidently answer all workshop questions. They could also name sustainable materials as well as present their own ideas for eco-friendly designs.

This is what the children had to say about their favourite part of the day?

"Working together and making buildings"

"When we made our models"

"Making & designing houses"

"We enjoyed making our building"

"When Katie was explaining structures and showing us a slide show"

"When we were making our models
and lunch"

"When I got to start to making my design"

"I liked when we designed"

"Learning about sustainable and flexible buildings"

With Special Thanks to Ms Schafer for making it happen!
